COMBLES IS CAPTURED

British Have Entered Objective Point in Present Offensive.—Germany Concedes Losses.—Rumanians Take Heights.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

British Front in France, Sept. 25. via London, Sept. 26.—This has been another great day for the Anglo-French forces on the Somme. As a spectacle for the observer, it was most splendid of all attacks made by the allied forces since commencement of the great offensive. Tonight the British have taken half of Forval, all of Lesboeuf and have advanced their line on a front of 1000 yards; the French have stormed Rancourt and have pushed their line to the outskirts of little village of Freignourt, east and south of the town of Comblès. The German stronghold of Comblès is virtually isolated.

At the appointed time the waves of infantry surged forward to the attack. Then the tremendous fire of the German guns swelled to its utmost volume until the whole field was lost in vast clouds of smoke. The attacking infantry vanished in this grim pall of smoke and hundreds of aeroplanes, while their wings gleamed like silver brilliant sunlight, strove vainly to see what was passing beneath them. Then across the dead field arose a signal from Morval, which told the British infantry had reached another goal and another village was taken. A man on a telephone in a nearby station, called out the capture of different strong points, with enthusiasm of one who scores in a hotly contested game.

According to British officers, the Germans in the fighting front have no longer any trenches, except those which are dug under fire.

French Take Village.

Paris, Sept. 26.—Continuing their offensive north of the Somme, the French last night captured all the village of Freignourt and penetrated the Comblès cemetery.

French Reconnoitering Party Reached the southern border of Comblès, says the official statement. Eight hundred unarmored prisoners were taken yesterday on the Somme front. The Germans made violent counter attacks last night on the Verdun front between Thiaumont, Woeir, and Fleury. These assaults were checked by French artillery and rifle fire.

On the Somme front yesterday there were thirty-seven aerial engagements. The war office announced that German aeroplanes were brought down and others were badly damaged.

Germany Admits Losses.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Successes were achieved by the Anglo-French forces on the Somme front last night to the east of Caumont l'Abbaye, north of Fiers, says today's official German statement. The conquest of villages on the line of Guedoucourt and Bouchonville, the statement adds, were recognized.

British Enter Comblès.

London, Sept. 26.—The British have entered Comblès on the Somme front, the war office announced today, after overcoming the resistance of the Germans.

Rumanians Win Heights.

Berlin, Sept. 26.—Rumanian troops have again shown a strong force against Austro-German positions near the village of Zsuzdrik and Vulcan, in Transylvania, says today's German official statement. The German troops repulsed all the announced attacks in the Transylvanian sector, but were withdrawn, according to army orders.

Slavs Make Attack.

Russian troops made yesterday six successive attacks on German positions in Galicia, says today's official statement, but the attack failed, with the heaviest losses for the Russians.

Repulse German Drive.

Petrograd, Sept. 26.—German troops after a fierce artillery preparation yesterday launched an attack against the Russian trenches north of Lake Ladovskoye, says today's Russian official statement. The Germans were repulsed with great losses, the statement adds, leaving a large number of killed and wounded on the field.

WORKERS JUDGE OF POLITICAL PARTIES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 26.—The workmen and women of Illinois will judge for themselves which party has made the most satisfactory reply to labor's request, John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor, told the resolutions committee of the democratic convention here today.

Walker was asked by a member of the committee what labor would do in return if the convention should go in favor of workmen's rights and curtailment of use of the court injunction in labor troubles. These things Walker asked the committee to incorporate in the platform.

Walker could not report to the state federation convention meeting in Quincy next month just what action each party has taken on his demand for these labor tanks, and that the workers themselves could judge "who had given them the squarest deal."

URGES TARIFF FOR CHEMICAL INDUSTRY

New York, Sept. 26.—Approval of a tariff for the chemical industry in this country, in what he calls the economic war of nations to follow the war, was voiced here today by John T. Gardin, vice-president of the National City bank of New York, in an address before the annual meeting of the American Chemical society.

"Theoretically, I never was a believer in tariffs," he said. "Practice, however, teaches us a different lesson, and the cost of any other policy must be put to book in our national interest. The cost of our military and naval service—and that is the protection of our natural resources.

"It is through the intervention of tariffs that the inequalities of methods of production are equalized. Unless we enter upon a campaign of preparedness now we are likely to receive some very rude shocks when the war of nations—that is, the economic war of nations—is launched upon us."

Former Premier Leaves Athens in Order to Carry Out His Plans to Swing Greece to Side of Allies.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

London, Sept. 26.—General Constantine Moschopoulos, chief of staff of the Greek army, has resigned, according to a Reuter dispatch from Athens.

General Moschopoulos commanded the Greek forces at Saloniki at the time of the landing of the Anglo-French expeditionary force. He ordered the troops under his command to salute French and British officers, and was generally reported to be friendly to the cause of the allies. In August General Moschopoulos was appointed chief of staff and in a statement given to the press, expressed the hope he could strengthen the good relations between Greece and the allies.

"I have concluded to sacrifice my personal humiliation in this case for the sake of other men and women who may be innocently drawn into the same unfortunate situation," West said.

"It was she who proposed the trip. On May 9 we reached New York and went to a hotel. Three men were with her, and we went to a suite over the Greek embassy. She asked me what I could do to save myself from disgrace, and then the question of money was adroitly broached.

"We were brought back to Chicago and kept prisoner three or four days. Then because the woman had been crying all the time, an appeal to pay her, I paid them $1,500 each. Several days later, the woman represented herself as United States Commissioner Foote, released us, they obtained $2,500 more from me."

ALBERT, AGED, NEVER LEAVES BELGIAN SOIL

King Without a Country, Weighed by War, Remains on Small Strip of Country Still Held.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Flushing, Netherlands, Sept. 26.—King Albert of Belgium has aged under the heavy cares and sorrows of the present time, and his hair is beginning to turn gray, according to latest news from the Belgian front. His majesty never leaves the small strip of land over which the Belgian flag still flies, refraining from visits to places in France or to St. Andrews, where the king of England or President Poincare want to meet the Belgian sovereign they have to go to this corner by the year.

The king's deep appreciation of the fact that their sovereign and commander-in-chief shares with them the monotony of the march of the day, is well known. He is free once more. His majesty is frequently seen by his men in the trenches, in the barracks, on the sand dunes of the dunes. It is said, indeed, that no one knows better than he the 25 or 30 miles of trenches where the Belgian troops keep vigilant guard day and night. He is particularly fond of visiting the advancing posts, and his troops always feel some amount of anxiety when they descry the king's tall figure traversing the footbridges only some hundreds of meters distant from the enemy.

Queen Elizabeth, on the other hand, has with her own hands bound up many badly wounded men in the ocean hospital. Here she is in daily attendance, speaking an encouraging word here and there to the patients and distributing tobacco and cigarettes. Instances are related where she has stood by the dying bed of simple soldiers. Her majesty is held in great veneration by the entire army.

MAN ADMITS HE WAS "TRAPPED" IN HOTEL BY BLACKMAIL GANG

Edward R. West, Prominent Coffee Merchant, Admits He Was a Victim of Gang.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Edward R. West, vice president of a New York and Chicago coffee concern, admitted today that he was the "A. R. Westley" who was trapped in a New York hotel with "Alice Williams" by a gang of alleged "Mann act" blackmailers, now held by federal authorities. After being taken prisoner to Chicago he was mulcted out of $15,000 on strength of a bogus federal warrant.

"The woman was not Alice Williams but Buda Godman, a member of the gang," West said.

This woman is to all practical purposes, though not technically, a prisoner in a Chicago hotel, pending the outcome of preliminary hearing of John T. French, George F. French and "Doc" Brady on charges of blackmailing West. French is said to be the son of a wealthy St. Louis widow, who believed him to be engaged in the haberdashery business.

"I have concluded to sacrifice my personal humiliation in this case for the sake of other men and women who may be innocently drawn into the same unfortunate situation," West said.

"It was she who proposed the trip. On May 9 we reached New York and went to a hotel. Three men were with her, and we went to a suite over the Greek embassy. She asked me what I could do to save myself from disgrace, and then the question of money was adroitly broached.

"We were brought back to Chicago and kept prisoner three or four days. Then because the woman had been crying all the time, an appeal to pay her, I paid them $1,500 each. Several days later, the woman represented herself as United States Commissioner Foote, released us, they obtained $2,500 more from me."

FRENCH REBUILDING PORT OF SALONIKI

Permanent Improvements of Every Sort Are Either Contemplated or Already Under Construction.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Salonika, Sept. 26.—The French are busily engaged in building permanent improvements of every sort in the Macedonian port of Salonika. The project of a $50,000 cold storage plant, and permanent marine and naval barracks are also planned. From the first landing of the French in Salonika, the French have been never known here before, and since then sanitation, lighting, water supply and even street car service have been improved under the direction of the French.

The general himself takes the keenest interest in all such work. Seeing some English troops at brigade drill one day, he called in his horse and watched them for a moment.

"They ought to have finished all of that before leaving England," was his comment. "Here the business is to build roads and dig sewers."

Naturally, the inhabitants of Greece's second city, who have been citizens of Greece for three years with no advantages save of the outlaws, have been exasperated, and have been the civic activities of the French.

ITALY TO KILL THREE FOR ATTEMPT TO BURN GREAT SEAPORT OF GENOA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Rome, Sept. 26.—An Austrian spy named Lora and two Italians have been condemned to be shot in the back by the Ancona court martial for complicity in the attempt to burn the port of Genoa. With this conspiracy, it seems, were connected explosions in munition factories in Milan and elsewhere aggregating in damages a total of several millions of dollars.

The Austrian, who was at the head of the plot, sought out Italian criminals, gaining a large sum of money in cooperation for only nominal sums. In one case the price for an attempt to blow up one of Italy's greatest steel works at Terni was about $80,000.

If his attempt had been successful it would have retarded military operations for several months.

Lara had in his possession when arrested eight jointed walking sticks about the size of a man's little finger, painted a gray-green, filled with dynamite. They were hidden in umbrellas when he tried to escape. In two cases he had no time fuses, but were so arranged as to explode a few weeks after being placed in position.

ASK STATE TO GIVE $1,000 FOR CAPTURE OF GIRL'S ASSAILANT

Grand Rapids, Minn., Sept. 26.—County Attorney Ralph A. Stone returned from Round Lake last night and sent a request to Governor Burdick for the apprehension of the man who assaulted Miss Olga Dahl.

Sheriff Gunderson, who has charge of the last county posse that is searching for the man, has joined the county attorney in his request that Governor Burdick offer the reward. Mike Smith, the suspect who was held since Friday, has been discharged by authorities and another man who was seen in the woods yesterday escaped the pursuers. William Carrington and Henry McDermott, with a man named dogs to take up the trail of the last suspect today.

Miss Dahl's assailant stole the revolver with which he shot her from the back of George Bloomquist, a homesteader, who is located about a mile from the school where Miss Dahl taught. Bloomquist was absent from his home last Wednesday and Thursday and upon his return found it had been broken into, food taken and dishes broken. Among other things missing was a .38 caliber revolver which is believed to be the weapon used in the shooting of the young teacher. Report from Miss Dahl's bedside last night was that she was in good health and was recovering from her wounds.

Governor Offers Reward.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 26.—A proclamation issued at noon today, Governor J. A. Burnquist offered a reward of $250 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the man who attacked Miss Olga Dahl, a high school teacher, near her school in Good Hope township, Itasca county late last Wednesday.

CANNIBALS KILL SIX IN SOUTH PACIFIC

British Trader and Five Children Killed by Man Eaters and Form Foundation for Stew.

Sydney, Australia, Sept. 23.—A steamer arriving from the New Hebrides group, about 300 miles off the northeast coast of Australia, has brought news of the murder of six persons by cannibals. The victims were a British trader named Bridges and four of his children. Bridges and his wife were found brutally murdered with axes and knives, and another child, who is missing, is believed to have been carried off by the cannibals and eaten. The bodies were found in a cave on a small island near a village on Malekula island, where there are tribes of cannibals who are bound in native custom to kill and eat a human being in order to keep up their rank.

The failure of the French and British punitive expeditions just before the outbreak of the European war to capture any of the perpetrators of similar crimes, and their immunity from punishment for two years past, on account of the war, is thought to have emboldened the cannibals.

SPAIN PROTESTS AT SINKING OF SHIPS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Recent dispatches from Spain said that indignation was growing throughout the country over the loss of Spanish ships through operation of German submarines. HUGHES HAS BIG CROWDS AT TOLEDO, O.

REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE CONTINUES ATTACK ON ADAMSON EIGHT HOUR LAW.

HECKLED BY WORKMEN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Toledo, O., Sept. 26.—Charles E. Hughes faced two audiences here today, one at a theatre which cheered him repeatedly, another in the open air at a large automobile plant composed of workmen, on the town hall. A number of the latter sought to heckle the nominee, and cheered for Wilson. There were also many cheers for Hughes.

Mr. Hughes spoke on the Adamson law in his open air speech. He reiterated his declaration that he would "never surrender" to force, and repeated his assertion that the measure was not an eight hour law, but a wage law.

Workmen Heckle Hughes.

"What about the Danberry haters?" shouted a man at the edge of the crowd.

There were many street noises from passing traffic, and apparently Mr. Hughes did not hear. Toward the end of his speech other workmen took up the question.

"What about the Danberry haters?" shouted many.

There was much other noise and voices. Mr. Hughes did not answer. After the meeting he said he had not heard the question.

"How about the unions in the factory here?" shouted another man.

Mr. Hughes replied he favored unions and was opposed to the nomination of Danberry. He said there was a growing volume of Wilson cheers sprinkled here and there with uncomplimentary references to Mr. Hughes.

Continues Smiling.

He continued, however, with a smile on his face and amid frequent applause from the crowd. He said he declared labor least of all could afford to surrender the principle of arbitration, only after investigation.

The nominee repeated his attack on the administration for the Adamson bill in his address at the theatre. He was vigorously applauded. He also declared for protection of American rights.

"The path of proper preparedness, the path of maintenance justice and firmly of American rights, is not the path that leads to ruin. The path is the path of security. The pathway of peace is to announce American rights in advance, and have the world understand exactly what we think and what we are prepared to do."

LAKE BOAT WRECKS IN STORM; SIX DIE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Oswego, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Six members of the crew of the steamer Robert of Oswego, who were drowned, the vessel founder in Lake Ontario, nine miles from here yesterday, it was learned today that three members of the crew reached here, exhausted, in a lifeboat. The boat was partly filled with survivors, and the boat was out for nine hours, having rowed to Oswego from the scene of the wreck.

The men said their ship had encountered a violent storm. She was loaded with lumber for the Diamond Match company. She was caught in the trough of a wave, the survivors said, and she listed heavily. Her cabins were stove in by the waves. The steamer began to sink, and then the captain, Peter Ely, ordered the lifeboat. As the boat was being launched, they said, it was torn away by the storm, and the chief engineer, Philip Trotter, of Hull, Quebec, and Engineer John E. Seagun and Eddie McGee, second mate, were hurled into the sea, but all three managed to grasp pieces of lumber and keep afloat until they reached the lifeboat.

The survivors said they saw Captain Ely attempting to save Miss Parent, the cook, but they were both swept into the sea and disappeared. The lifeboat stood by until the occupants were convinced there was no one left aboard the steamer, which was sinking gradually by the stern, with but a few feet of the bow showing above the water.

Second Mate Loggall, who was one of the survivors reaching here, had injuries in his chest and left leg. The wreck is said to be the worst on Lake Ontario in twenty years.

DENY SCOTCH AND ENGLISH BOOST IRISH COMPANY MUSTER

Dublin, Ireland, Sept. 26.—The charge that the Dublin Fusiliers, are being filled up from reserves of Englishmen and Scotchmen, is repudiated by the colonel, lately commanding the Dublin Fusiliers, the battalion occupied in the commercial young men. There are, he says, not twenty men in the battalion who are not Irish, and these had come in because they had Irish friends in it.

English regiments had applied for transfer to the Dublin and this may have given rise to the charge. Some English regiments have been recruited almost entirely from the Irish in England, notably the Tyndesside Irish, which was officially called the Northumberland Fusiliers, the lists as the 1st London regiment. The casualty lists of Scottish Highland regiments show a large proportion of Irish names.

SOPH-FRESH ACTIVITIES

START AT MILITON COLLEGE

Milton, Wis., Sept. 25.—The annual joy ride of the freshman president took place last Thursday night, when Talbot, the executive officer of the college, took a party of about twenty students out into the country and left to walk out to town. Mr. Talbot showed good presence of mind and telephoned to Rogers' candy store, where several of the students' girlfriends were waiting. The fresh hastily mobilized and six of the bravest warriors motored out after the classmate with the illustrious sophomore in close pursuit. Upon their return the entire freshman class assembled at Rogers' and were treated by W. W. Clarke of the college bookstore. After devouring several gallons of ice cream the fresh undertook to "slip one over on the sports, and waylaid 'Hungry' Van Horn, the largest of the sophs, and gave him a short joy ride into the suburbs.

Several scratched countenances, but no broken bones, presented themselves on the campaign. The following morning, but all were in fine spirits. The academy students, too, enjoyed themselves Thursday evening. They journeyed to the bluff, and cooked "chow" and roasted marshmallows. A fine time. Rev. Van Horn was elected president of the academy.

ROAD COMMITTEE TO CONFER IN BELOIT

Good Roads Committee of Commercial Club Goes to Beloit to Meet Similar Committee.

After one necessary postponement the Good Roads committee of the Janesville Commercial club will go to Beloit this evening to confer with a similar committee in that city on the matter of the proposed construction of a concrete highway between the two cities. It is hoped that enough can be accomplished at this meeting to warrant the calling of a larger meeting of influential citizens in each city, so that the matter may be put up to the public at large more directly.

At this large meeting, which may take the form of a dinner, various authorities on good roads and men active in the national good roads organization will talk on the construction and advantages of a proposed federal scheme would put a thorough road between these two cities and it is the hope of the men who are conducting the local campaign to undertake such construction here that will insure the government's carrying out their project and include Janesville in the right-of-way of the proposed federal road.

With the federal and state aid that will be furnished it is not likely that private assistance will be solicited, but already a number of men here have offered substantial sums to be used in the construction of a concrete link between Janesville and Beloit. This will be good enough to really connect the two cities.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Unsettled weather tonight and Wednesday probably showers and cooler. Wednesday and western part of Thursday likely to be clear and fresh winds.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.

It would appear that the street department might find plenty of opportunity to fill up some of the crannies that have appeared in the streets of this city that have cost property owners considerable money to build, before the cold weather sets in. It is all well and good to state that this or that improvement is going to be accomplished in the immediate future, but the next question is whether the statement is correct or not.

Some time ago a circus visited the city and did not parade the streets of Janesville. The parade would be seriously damaged. The circus, glad to take the money, gave no free exhibit. The city officials were right in protecting the streets, but why did they not have the circus wagons on the streets, they did, however, holes, ruts, bumps and loose places about and it is coming on winter and one would expect these damages would have been repaired at least.

It is not good policy to permit the streets of the city to get into condition that many of them now are without remedy. In foreign countries where the rural highways would put to shame many of the city streets of this country, men are employed constantly repairing the roadway with stones and pounding them into place with hand mauls. With the division of the city into two districts it was hoped the old ward limitations for repair would be eliminated, but evidently it has not improved matters in the least and something should be done at once before it is too late in the season to begin out of doors repair work.

WAGES AND WAGES.

Discussion of financial questions by the Wall Street Journal brings forth the fact that they believe that by reason of the European war this country has been given an industrial boom. It has become a feast of employment and a famine of labor. Taking advantage of this situation, labor leaders are functioning trouble maker, labor and capital come in contact. Their power and arrogance have been brought home to the attention of every thinking man by the manner of settlement of the threatened railroad strike.

Abundance of work and high wages for the workmen do not spell prosperity for the masses. High wages force prices upwards in those products affected by the increased wages. What may be called sympathetic advances become necessary in other lines. Cost of living (the relative rate of wages) is going beyond a livable point. When the level is prohibitive of profit, or even of a small margin, the loss of nature and the struggle for existence.

It is conceivable that the war may last another year; two years; five years. Who knows? And wages, as they continue to rise at the rate of labor, is the struggle for existence to be decided against the great masses of people at the behest of a few? This is the problem with which we are now brought face to face. Look at it, and say how you like it.

Before the war floods of immigrants followed prosperity's wake. A labor shortage has been followed by depression. Only through a large supply of labor and the effects of depression has capital been able to combat unreasonable demands of labor.

Before the war Europe used to pump the wheels of industry go round. But since that time the average man has been kept in a state of poverty but twelve per cent of pre-war days. It was necessary to make the wheels go round in some way. They have been made to go round. But the country has paid the price in increased cost of living. It will continue to pay an ever increasing penalty so long as present conditions persist.

War has stopped immigration. It may be a thing of the past after peace is restored. Without this foreign capital may find itself at the mercy of labor. Its future then would be to refuse to make further investments in industry. Without capital actively employed labor will starve. If the labor leaders are capable of seeing the secondary consequences of their acts they should understand that in their present course they are advancing agents for a future period of depression and the workmen's ruin.

DEMOCRATS VS. FARMER.

In framing and passing the Underwood tariff law, the democratic congress showed no consideration whatever for the American farmer, for under that law the products of the farm are either on the free list, or are so near the free list as to amount practically to the same thing. Farm products are not protected under the democratic tariff law. Just exactly what the democrats did to the farmer is shown in the tabulation below:

Com.	Republican	Underwood

The question is asked what has become of the country clubs that used to be formed so that people could get out and enjoy nature and the simple life. Well, about now they are raising their dues so as to put in metropolitan restaurants.

COST OF MILK.

Dairymen in many sections are moving this fall for higher prices of milk. Increased in one locality are likely to be followed elsewhere. Many millions of consumers are likely to be affected.

Milk was formerly looked at mostly as a baby food. The man who walked into a restaurant and gave an order for bread and milk was regarded as a sphenotomist. But no less an apostle of efficiency than Theodore Roosevelt has owned up to being a devotee of the milk bottle. Sanitariums and physical culture experts are recommending milk diet to people who wish to gain in weight. It's about the most widespread food there is today, and increases in cost hit home to every family.

Although prices are already high, the farmer does not seem to get much out of it. Where the consumer is paying eight to ten cents a quart, the dairyman is likely to get only three to four. In many places there is a loss in efficiency in the retail distribution. A town of 4,000 people is reported to have forty different milk curbs passing through its streets. They double and duplicate on each other, and greatly increase expense.

If dairymen were as averse to united effort as many other classes of farmers, the chances are that there is a considerable loss at that end. Co-operation is now making great strides among the agricultural population. But there are still many localities where each farmer operates independently, where he should reduce expense by joining with neighbors in a given service.

Collection of milk is not like other kinds of delivery of farm produce, that can be done all at once and gotten through with. The carts or trucks must trundle around every day to the farmer's door. This work should be done systematically. Where two or more teams are going through the same roads, there is loss and waste that the consumer eventually pays.

It is predicted that one result of the fighting in Europe will be greater efforts to preserve human life, so that people will be all ready to get killed in the next war.

About now the back yard looks pretty decidedly with the refuse of summer, but the fact that it was well cleaned up last spring gives the householder much satisfaction.

When beef goes higher, the popular thing to do is to petition congress or start lawsuits, but more than a hint of trying to have more cattle raised.

The women's columns tell all about the clothes a girl will need when she goes to college, but don't say much about what she will have to know.

After showing its warm sympathy for strikes, the public expresses its indignation at the advances in cost of living that the strikes produce.

Much suffering is reported from those New Yorkers who by reason of the traction strike are compelled to walk half a mile to their work.

But anyway, after the gets to college she doesn't spend several of her study hours daily in calculating the chances of the football teams.

When business depression comes, the people can't find work, and when prosperity comes they won't work because they are on strike.

The motorists who get into trouble from taking long chances were of course going to do it only just this once.

Anyway, the returns from the backyard garden are usually not big enough to pay for the seed, fertilizer and tools.

"Speaking of cannibals," said Colonel Hart Beeter—although the members of the Necks to Nature club had been speaking of vaccination as a preventive of the deadly gassing of disease of the tropics. "I don't believe I ever told you of my little experience with cannibals, did I?"

"Yes!" shouted half a dozen. "Oh didn't? Then I will," said the colonel with his sweet smile. "When the circus ship 'Main Tent' went down in the Zeebi Ocean, the only two to be washed ashore were myself and Frank the human pin cushion. There was not a thing to eat on the apparently uninhabited island, so, although Frank kept begging me for the pins from my lapel—which I always carry a plentiful supply—and managed to stave off his own hunger, I was soon furnished.

"Then the cannibals showed up, bound us hand and foot and set the pot boiling, exactly as you've seen in comic pictures. Luckily for me, gentlemen, they stewed and ate the human pin cushion first. Five minutes after they had downed him, they were rolling on the ground in fits and starts—full of pins, I've seen! Well, extricated myself while they were in that helpless condition, slaughtered them all by tickling them behind the ears—cannibals can't stand it!—and hailed a passing schooner bound for home with a cargo of terra cotta eggs from Juam. Will someone kindly pass the matches?"

Julian Louis Lamothe, on coming from the company's scenario department into the Los Angeles free-lance field, was immediately engaged to adapt a scenario for a short to be produced by a west coast feature film company. Mr. Lamothe has a number of big feature pictures to his credit, among the most recent being, "Lying Lips," "Dust," and "The Inner Struggle," all current releases on the feature programs.

The supporting cast were well received. The scenic effects were new and bright and very much as they should be. John Winninger, manager of the company, is to be complimented for having gathered together such an excellent company of stock players.

Clever specialties were introduced between acts by Franc Dale, Glen Coulter and Kate Girney. If the attractions for the balance of the week are as good as the one presented by the Winninger Players last evening, the New Myers should be packed every night.

News Notes From Movieland

By DAISY DEAN.

Now that Lou Tellegen's new picture, "The Victory of Conscience," has been shown, the interest of the photo play spectator naturally turns to the latest camera activities of his talented wife, Geraldine Farrar. It is announced that Miss Farrar has practically completed her work in the role of a new feature, "Joan of Arc."

Desiring to have no one but recognized stars in support of Miss Farrar, Lasky has signed Harry Keenan to the role of the archbishop of Rheims, an important part in "Joan of Arc." Made up and wearing the archiepiscopal robes, Mr. Keenan is said to dominate the scene in which he appears. One of these showing

ARTISTS TO BE JUDGES.
America's foremost artists will sit as judges of the artistic merits of the film spectacle, "A Daughter of the Gods," starring Annette Kellermann, at a special presentation in New York.

Among the invited celebrities are the coronation of the emperor by the Harrison Fisher, James Montgomery Flagg, Howard Chandler Christy, William De Lettichaw, Preston, Violet Oakley, Alice Barber Stephens and others. Mr. Fox is confident he has produced a masterpiece. Now he wants to know what the creators of beautiful women, land, sky and seas—scapes think of it.

In addition to these guests of the open and brush, there will be a group of prominent musicians who will pass along the special musical score written for the film by Robert Hood Bowers

"The Greek ideals still live in classic dancing," she says. "There are beauty and grace of movement and a feeling of health and exhilaration in the free gestures of the attic dance."

GREAT ATHLETES WILL REPRESENT AMERICA ABROAD

New York, Sept. 26.—Probably the greatest quartet of athletes ever gathered together in the United States for a trip to foreign lands to show what they can do will leave New York today after tomorrow on the steamship Great Britain. They will visit Denmark, Norway and Sweden and will take part in competitive contests in the principal cities of those countries.

The four are Robert Simpson of the University of Missouri, world's champion 100-yard hurdler; Fred S. Murray of California, senior champion 220-yard hurdler; Ted Meredith, former senior champion quarter miler and Joe Loomis, a star hurdler and sprinter. The first stop will be at Copenhagen, Oct. 12; Copenhagen the following day, and the athletes will appear at a special meet arranged in that honor at Stockholm Oct. 21.

This quartet are the best all-around athletes this country can get. With the exception of Meredith all are men who can perform in high-class fashion both on the track and in the field.

Meredith is a strictly a track man. A special hurdle race undoubtedly will be arranged at each of the meets, for in Simpson, Murray and Loomis the European will have the opportunity of seeing the world's best hurdle runners.

Competition between Murray and Simpson, especially, should prove highly interesting. Loomis, Murray and Simpson also can be called upon to run the 100 and 200 yard dashes, and each has a high jump, although there is little possibility that Simpson will be asked to take part in that event.

Loomis and Murray are shot putters and should furnish some lively competition for the Scandinavians.

Meredith will display his well-known speed in the 100 and 200 yard dashes, and with his three miles will form a link in relay team which should be unbeatable. Each man will run six races in the relay, and the quartet has been in an abundance of the Olympic games the athletes will be sent to compete in the Scandinavian games will give the quartet a chance to meet the best of the American sprinters and field men.

The four men will leave for home Oct. 26 and are due to reach the American shore Nov. 1.

Bob Corhan, a brilliant fielder, but who has many shortcomings, a poor thrower in the major leagues has been selected by Miller Huggins to the San Francisco Pacific Coast league club. Corhan always has been a steady thrower in coast league circles.

The Wichita franchise in the Western league has been turned over to Coleman Strang, who has wanted a franchise in that circuit for many years.

W. Dan Costello was released to an international league club by Manager Jimmy Callahan of the Philadelphia Athletics, who has been of the Philadelphia Athletics.

MATTIE MCCUE, RACINE PUG, GETS TERRIBLE LACING

Red Dolan, the New Orleans Sunbeam, gave Mattie McCue, the Racine knockout, a touch of high life last night. Red pulled a lot of fast stuff, involving footwork and boxing gloves on the clothing of McCue and Mattie was the receiver general through a half hour of merry quarreling.

At the conclusion of the festivities McCue had a mouth that was spouting blood and a right eye that was doing the same thing. He had been well peppered for thirty minutes. But McCue had knocked out his right glove and endeavored, with might and main to slip it over. The Sunbeam from the south was too fast and Mattie was felled from start to finish.

COMISKEY HAS LOST ANOTHER PET MOOSE

(By Associated Press.)
Ashland, Wis., Sept. 26.—Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, yesterday lost another of the moose with which he has stocked his park at Trude Lake. The animal was known as "Red," having been named in honor of "Red" Faber, one of Comiskey's players. It stayed through the park through the big gate, which had been left open by a visitor to the preserve.

Barth Lawler, a farmer boy, living near Ellettsburg, was out looking for his father's cows when "Red" rambled through the pasture. Young Lawler took to his heels. The moose, Lawler says, pursued him, and he ran for his life.

Young Lawler's kid brother, Attley, who happened along at the time, became aware of his brother's predicament, and carrying a rifle, he barked away at the price of Comiskey's herd. Attley's shooting arm was pitching a 30-30 soft-nosed ball, 1000 and "Red" crumpled up and expired.

IF YOU HAVEN'T WAS, CUT YOU CAN'T HAVE MY TIME.

IM SORRY I'M OUT OF IT. HERE'S THE KIND YOU USED TO USE.

AT TIP TO YOU, MR. DEALER. DON'T RUN OUT OF THE KIND YOUR CUSTOMERS WANT AND YOU WON'T RUN OUT OF CUSTOMERS.

HERE and there you run across a store keeper who's got the idea that all the common sense in town is on his side of the counter. He don't keep W-B CUT Chewing nor any of the new and better things. Somehow he can't increase his trade. Nearby is a man who believes in the people. He keeps all the good things—he's a success. He finds men changing over to W-B CUT right along. Training a Husband

"Don't explain," Morris made a gesture of impatience.

"That, Morris."

"As if it was not bad enough to live through a disagreeable experience without prolonging it by a long and painful over-analysis."

"You are blaming me for what was not my fault?"

"Of course, I am."

"I simply want to have an end of the matter."

"The fault was mine, then?"

"You do not understand the affair at all. You would not feel so about it if you had seen the man, looking at you as he did."

"I can leave the room if it is necessary for you to keep talking about the man."

"Morris rose threateningly."

"I think myself that it would be a good thing for you to go somewhere and cool off. You are not yourself."

Household Hints

PAPER SAVES LABOR IN THE HOME.

Paper is one of the most useful helps we have in doing kitchen work, as well as other work in the course of a day's duties.

When peeling potatoes, apples, peaches, etc., spread a paper on the table and drop the peelings on it, and when through gather paper containing refuse and consign to the trash.

After soaking and cleaning fish, place it on heavy brown paper. This holds all refuse. Chickens can be cleaned in like manner. Select a clean piece of white wrapping paper when flouring chickens, meat or fish for frying.

When making pies, cookies and biscuits, use smooth white paper for rolling board. This is more satisfactory and you will have no sticky mess to clean, which saves time and labor.

Line the cake pans with white paper, well greased. This prevents the cake from burning or getting too brown, and also from sticking to the pan.

On sweeping days, newspapers moistened and torn into small bits and scattered over the carpet or rug will prevent dust from blowing about.

Place the baby's high chair on a newspaper at meal time, to catch the crumbs and food baby drops. The rug will not be soiled and the paper can be rolled up together in a moment.

If the pantry shelves are covered with newspapers, this tends to keep away roaches, ants and other creeping pests, as the printers' ink is distasteful to them.

THE TABLE.

Oysters, crackers and seasoning. Layer oysters over milk. Sprinkle cracker crumbs and butter on top. Bake three-fourths hour.

Creamed Turtlets—Line patty pans with pastry. Put into each a layer of thick boiled custard. Beat up the white of an egg, mix with a tablespoon of powdered sugar. Put custard lightly on top of custard. Bake in gentle oven twenty to thirty minutes.

Sunshine Cake—Light part: One cup flour, one cup sugar, half cup butter, half cup cornstarch, half cup cream, one teaspoon baking powder, whites of three eggs. Dark part: Two cups flour, one cup sugar, one cup butter, half cup sweet milk, one cup raisins, one teaspoon ground ginger, one nutmeg, one teaspoon cloves, yolks three eggs. Bake in jelly cake pans. Put jelly on top alternately. Put icing between them.

Russian Dressing—Four tablespoons salad dressing, two tablespoons chili sauce, one hard-boiled egg (chopped), one sweet pickle (chopped), green pepper (chopped). Mix all ingredients, pour over lettuce. Asparagus, Mousse—Arrange short stalks of cooked asparagus in baking dish and pour over mouseline sauce, three tablespoons butter, one-fourth teaspoon salt, pepper, one egg, one cup cream, one-half cup chicken stock, yolks two eggs, one-half cup cream, one-half cup lemon juice. Melt butter, add flour and stir, then add cream, yolks and lemon juice. Bring to boiling point and add salt and pepper. Just before serving add egg yolks and lemon juice.

Mustard Pickles—Three hundred pickles two to three inches long, one pound barrel salt, one pound mustard, one gallon vinegar, wash and dry each pickle and pack in five gallon crock. Mix salt, mustard and vinegar and pour over these. Tie a cloth over top of crock. Ready to use in four or five days.

Breaded Pork Chops—Six chops, one egg, bread crumbs. Dip chops in beaten eggs, then in crumbs. Fry quickly to brown well, without cooking meat. Then place in steamer and steam for 1½ hours. Tastes like chicken.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: There is a girl who told a lie about me to another boy and he believed her and no more. I told him that what she said was not true and he just laughed. I like this boy very much and I do not want him to believe what the other girl said about me. She said that I kissed another boy when I did not. How can I make him believe me?
